B. Commissioners' Reports

C. Meeting dates reminder

D. Suggestions for items for future meetings

David Fisher, the Cultural Arts Director, presented his report on the state of the cultural arts, noting upcoming events and current projects. Large projects currently underway include the development of a public art policy to help streamline oversight and guidelines of public art projects; in addition, season proposals have closed and are currently being processed for the Granville Arts Center and Plaza Theatre.

David Fisher noted Commissioners can help in various ways including being the eyes and ears for their community, and to help connect with neighborhoods.

The historical plaque that was purchased in early 2021 in conjunction with the Heritage Museum has now been installed at the front of the Granville Arts Center.
